The Quotation shows the current date, quotation number, reference details, who the quote is intended for, terms of payment, location, dates, times, clinical specification, resource specification, rate, GST element, other miscellaneous notes if required, a link to the T's and C's, and the Acceptance Form of the reverse side.

7. If the Clinical Specification is provided by the event organiser, Medics On Scene will not be held responsible if resources are overwhelmed. If clinical personnel are already attending patients, they are considered "not available". Any time on-site clinical resources are overwhelmed, the event should be suspended until resources are available again.
8. Acceptance by you of the quotation must be made by completing the Quotation Acceptance Form (link on the quote). We cannot guarantee that any particular request for us to provide services will be accepted.

10. Once your acceptance of the quotation is received, we will confirm our availability to you by return email, whereupon a contract is formed. We will only assume contractual liability once we have accepted and confirmed by return e-mail, your Acceptance Form which confirms that the quotation meets your requirements.
